

R.P.P INFRA PROJECTS LIMITED

POLICY ON DETERMINATION OF MATERIALITY OF INFORMATION OR EVENTS

1. Introduction

This Policy on Determination of Materiality of Information or Events (the “Policy”) is aimed at providing guidelines to the Management of R.P.P Infra Projects Limited (the “Company”), to determine the materiality of information or events, which could affect the investment decisions and ensure timely and adequate dissemination of information to the stock exchanges.

This Policy has been formulated in accordance with the current guidelines laid down by Securities Exchange Board of India (“SEBI”), under Regulation 30 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“Listing Regulations”), with respect to disclosure of events and information.

The Board of Directors of R.P.P Infra Projects Limited has approved and adopted this policy and shall be effective from December 1, 2015.

2. Objective of Policy

The policy has been framed with the objective of providing adequate and appropriate disclosures that are consistent with the facts of the material events.

The current policy mechanisms regulate:

- a) the procedure determining the materiality of the events/information;
- b) the procedure governing the disclosure of the events that are deemed to be material;
- c) to decide upon the instance when the material events have occurred and the time frame within which the information is to be disclosed.

3. Guidelines for Determining Materiality

The Company shall consider the following criteria for determining the materiality of the events:

- a) The omission of an event or information which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of an event or information already available publicly; or
- b) The omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date or as may be decided by the Board;
- c) In case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a) and (b) are not applicable, an event/information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company, the event / information is considered material.

4. Disclosure of material events / information

Information relating to material events and which is price sensitive in nature, shall be promptly disseminated to the Stock Exchanges. For this purpose, material event means any information which relates to the Company and which, if published is likely to materially affect the price of shares of the Company.

- a) The Company shall make disclosure of events specified in Annexure 1 (Events specified in Para A of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations and as may be amended from time to time), without applying any test of materiality to the stock exchanges within specified timelines.
- b) The Company shall make disclosure of events specified in Annexure 2 (Events specified in Para B of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations and as may be amended from time to time), based on application of the guidelines for materiality, to the stock exchanges within specified timelines.
- c) Any other information/event viz. major development that is likely to affect business, e.g. emergence of new technologies, expiry of patents, any change of accounting policy that may have a significant impact on the accounts, etc. and brief details thereof and any other information which is exclusively known to the Company which may be necessary to enable the shareholders of the Company to appraise its position and to avoid the establishment of a false market in such securities, would be disclosed as advised by the Board from time to time.
- d) The Company shall make disclosures of any events or information which, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, is material. In case where an event occurs or information is available with the company, which has not been indicated in Annexure 1 and 2, but which may have material effect on it, the Company would make adequate disclosures in regard thereof.

The Company shall disclose to the stock exchanges of all events, specified in Annexure-1 or information as soon as reasonably possible and not later than 24 hours from the occurrence of the event/information. In the event the disclosure is made after 24 hours of occurrence of the event or information, the Company shall, along with such disclosures provide an explanation for such delay.
